

PREEMIES TODAY

PRESS RELEASE

Date Submitted: November 2, 2008

Preemies Today Presents “Deciding to Have another Baby: Considerations to Make after Experiencing a Difficult Pregnancy, Preterm Birth, or Birth Defects.”

(Springfield, VA) – Preemies Today presents a lecture at the Fairfax City Regional Library Meeting Room which will discuss preparing yourself emotional and physically for another pregnancy after experiencing adverse conditions. The lecture will take place from 12:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m., on November 16. This lecture is free and open to the general public.

For more information about this lecture, please call 703-229-0835. The speaker and topic information is listed below.

The speaker:

Dona Dei, RN MSN, State Director of Programs Services for the March of Dimes
The March of Dimes is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the health of babies by preventing birth defects, premature birth, and infant mortality.

The topic:

November is Prematurity Awareness Month and Ms. Dei will discuss how preparing for pregnancy may help in the prevention of some birth defects and premature birth. Participants will learn about their risks and how they can find help prior to planning the next pregnancy.

Preemies Today is a non-profit organization run by volunteers whose mission is to provide outreach and support programs to families affected by a premature birth in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. For further information regarding Preemies Today go to the organization’s website at www.preemiestoday.org

For more information regarding this press release, please contact:

Mary Beth Hazelgrove
President, Preemies Today
P.O. Box 523525
Springfield, VA 22152
703-229-0835
info@preemiestoday.org
www.preemiestoday.org

###